

Calling All Hearts

(Feb 2025 edition)

Exposing a problem that humanity faces, on a global scale; The pharmaceutical and technological enslavement of humanity

Mass distribution of brain and feeling numbing psychiatric pharmaceuticals is a large part of the problem we are faced with. These pharmaceuticals have been given to healthy people who do not need them, and have even been being found in public and bottled drinking water, so nearly everyone else has been getting them too.

In general, psychiatric pharmaceuticals block our instincts and intuition as well as our ability to feel compassion and empathy. This alone is a VERY serious problem and is at the core of much of the dysfunctional fighting as well as masses of people becoming like numb sheep who just blindly follow... whatever. Over-all, these pharmaceuticals block our hearts and our natural process of personal and spiritual growth and make us more brainwashable. . .and the dangers in this alone can not be over stated.

We can protect ourselves from the pharmaceuticals; by filtering drinking water through pure untreated charcoal. (look up how to easily make a filter on youtube.) And there are harmless plants that can help people with things like anxiety or depression, but most of us are far better off when we allow the natural grieving and healing process, instead of suppressing our feelings. We can only heal it when we can feel it.

The second part of this problem; radio waves (microwaves), that are tuned to the same frequency as the human brain, are VERY effective in the process of brainwashing people who are taking the brain and feeling numbing pharmaceuticals.

Space and ground based technologies, that send microwaves into our communities for internet and cell phone access, can also be criminally used. Whole communities and organizations can be flooded with microwaves, that are tuned to the same frequency as the human brain, for general brainwashing purposes. Beams shot directly into the human brain, can effect functionality in ways that range from mental numbness and confusion to symptoms that mimic what they now call, "mental illness," (like depression and anxiety) which sends people to our very corrupt field of psychiatry, which then prescribes the brain and feeling numbing pharmaceuticals. And then this person is even more enslaved/controllable.

Beams of microwaves shot into other organs can cause physical illnesses that range from mild to lethal, like autoimmune diseases and heart attacks. They can also be used to torture people with inflictions of pain. It appears that all of these things have been happening, and it must be stopped for the sake of the safety and wellbeing of all of humanity. Requesting radio wave free zones in our communities, especially in schools and residential areas, would be a really good idea.

Never, in the history of humanity, has there been a more crucial time for us to open our hearts and unite into a peaceful quest for freedom

Please do not leap to blame "the government," because it appears that many government officials are also victims of this. According to things I've witnessed, mind control victims include media, military, law enforcement, and other government personnel, as well as masses of common citizens. Consequently, some people, in all arenas, are not behaving in ways they naturally would. So, please do not angrily leap to blame anyone. Just do the best you can to take good care of yourselves and your loved ones; do your best to follow only your own heart and instincts above all else. And requesting radio wave free places in our communities, especially at schools and in residential areas, would be a really good idea.

The deepest root of this problem appears to exist in a private sadistic/satanic type organization that has been aiming for world domination, at least since Nicola Tesla's 1800 experiments with various types of frequencies shot into the human body...etc. Some of the microwaving has a negative effect; people and organizations have been being pitted against each other. It will help to visualize pure white Light filling your home and body, especially your head and chest area, on a daily basis.

What's happening is so outrageously inhumane that the natural response is to slip into shocked denial, overwhelm, or blind disbelief, but this situation needs our awareness and attention. We must realize what is happening, so that we can take steps to take better care of ourselves, and so that we can understand why so many people seem so heartless. Most of them just need freedom and compassionate understanding.

Please copy and share this paper, especially with officials whom you think may be able to help prevent further criminal use of the technologies and pharmaceuticals.

Attention Officials: Some technologies, which detect or block radio wave intrusions, may contain a filter that bypasses the very low frequencies used for mind control. Please investigate this and do all that you can to stop criminal use of psychiatric pharmaceuticals and technologies that can emit and direct microwaves...etc. Find more information on www.technologicalholocaust.com
